“There are many things that I am thankful for having studied at SIM. Firstly, it is the variety of extracurricular activities at SIM. I enjoyed working in teams, coordinating events and acquired organisational skills that helped build my foundation for working life. The lecturers and syllabus allowed me to apply the knowledge I learnt during university life in my current role at KPMG. My lecturer is now my mentor and friend. Now, we often share work experiences, and he offers guidance when needed. I'm really grateful for all the people I met in SIM and I hold these experiences dearly. (2023)”

Gwen Teh
Alumna of SMJK Chung Ling – Butterworth Graduate, SIM – University of London
